Beirut 2024: Diary of the Collapse is a powerful and moving account of the collapse of Beirut, as seen through the eyes of a young woman who lived through it. The book is a haunting and unforgettable portrait of a city in ruins, and a testament to the strength and resilience of the human spirit in the face of unimaginable loss.

On August 4, 2020, a massive explosion ripped through the port of Beirut, killing at least 200 people and injuring thousands more. The blast caused widespread destruction, leveling entire neighborhoods and leaving the city in ruins. Beirut 2024: Diary of the Collapse tells the story of the explosion and its aftermath through the eyes of Sarah, a young woman who lived in Beirut at the time.

Sarah's diary is a raw and honest account of the chaos and devastation that followed the explosion. She writes about the fear, the loss, and the overwhelming sense of grief that consumed the city. But she also writes about the resilience and strength of the people of Beirut, who came together in the face of tragedy to help each other rebuild their lives.

Beirut 2024: Diary of the Collapse is a powerful and moving book that will stay with you long after you finish it. It is a must-read for anyone who wants to understand the human cost of war and conflict, and the indomitable spirit of those who survive it.
