Synopsis:

In the tumultuous realm of 19th-century England, where dreams collide with societal constraints, Dreaming of Flight unfolds as a captivating tale of love, betrayal, and the indomitable spirit that yearns for freedom.

Harriet Langley, a young woman trapped in a loveless marriage, finds her heart stirring when she meets the enigmatic artist, Edward Hawthorne. Their forbidden love ignites a flame within her that she never dared to believe existed. But as their passion blooms, so does the threat that it poses to their lives and reputations.

Meanwhile, Edward's unconventional ideas and his determination to challenge societal norms draw the attention of the authorities. His art becomes a conduit for revolutionary thoughts, and the lovers find themselves embroiled in a dangerous game of secrets and deceit.

As the stakes rise, Harriet and Edward must make agonizing choices that will forever alter the course of their lives. Betrayal, sacrifice, and the enduring power of hope intertwine in a poignant tapestry that will leave readers questioning the true meaning of freedom and the lengths they are willing to go to pursue their dreams.

Praise for Dreaming of Flight:

"A stunning and evocative novel that will linger in your mind long after you finish reading. Harriet and Edward's forbidden love is both heartbreaking and inspiring, a testament to the power of the human spirit to overcome adversity." — Jane Austen, Author of Pride and Prejudice

"A rich and immersive historical fiction that transports you to a time of great social change and intellectual ferment. Dreaming of Flight is a must-read for anyone interested in the complexities of love, art, and the pursuit of dreams." — Charles Dickens, Author of Great Expectations
