Understanding the SAT Reading Section

The SAT Reading section consists of five passages with accompanying questions. The passages span diverse genres, including fiction, non-fiction, science, and social studies. The questions test your ability to:

- Comprehend the main idea and supporting details
- Identify inferences and draw s

- Analyze the author's purpose and perspective

li>Discern the meaning of unfamiliar vocabulary

Strategies for Success

1. Active Reading: Engage actively with the passages by highlighting, annotating, and underlining key points. Create margin notes to summarize paragraphs or track your thoughts.

2. Vocabulary Enhancement: Expand your vocabulary by studying word lists, reading widely, and using context clues to infer the meaning of unfamiliar words. Focus on building a strong foundation of academic and SAT-specific vocabulary.

3. Passage Comprehension: Begin by reading each passage carefully, paying attention to the structure and flow of the text. Identify the main idea, supporting evidence, and any underlying bias or perspective.

4. Inference and Analysis: Go beyond the surface level by drawing inferences and analyzing the author's purpose, tone, and style. Consider different interpretations and connect ideas across paragraphs.

5. Tough Questions: For challenging questions, eliminate incorrect answer choices based on logic and evidence from the passage. Use process of elimination to narrow down your options.
