The author's story begins with the loss of her beloved husband. Devastated by his death, she turns to alcohol and drugs to numb the pain. But her addiction only leads to more pain and suffering.

After hitting rock bottom, the author finds the strength to get sober. She begins to rebuild her life, one day at a time. She finds solace in writing and painting, and she discovers a new sense of purpose in helping others.

Long Way From Home Part Of is a story of hope and redemption. It is a reminder that even in the darkest of times, there is always light at the end of the tunnel.
